To this end, the parties are committed to a cooperative approach to such matters involving joint participation and consultation.

8. Consultation requirements for matters related to the implementation of this Agreement

8.1 Within one month of the approval of this Agreement, the Employer will convene an MEA Implementation Group (MEAIG) that:

- (a) ensures that the Union is afforded the opportunity for discussion and the provision of information in a form and in sufficient time to enable them to be sufficiently informed so as to provide an opportunity for an informed view to influence the Employer on steps to be taken in the implementation of this Agreement in general or on a single issue(s) basis;
- (b) includes at least two Employer representatives and at least two Union representatives; and

10. Dispute resolution

Disputes

10.1 Unless otherwise provided for in the Agreement, a dispute about a matter arising under the Agreement or the National Employment Standards, other than termination of employment, must be dealt with in accordance with this clause. This includes a dispute about whether an Employer had reasonable grounds to refuse a request for flexible working conditions under the National Employment Standards or an application for extended family leave under the National Employment Standards as well as a dispute about workload.

10.2 The Employer or an Employee may choose to be represented at any stage by a representative, including an employer or employee organisation.

Obligations

10.3 The parties to the dispute, and their representatives, must genuinely attempt to resolve the dispute through the processes set out in this clause and must cooperate to ensure that these processes are carried out expeditiously.

10.4 Whilst a dispute is being dealt with in accordance with this clause, work must continue in accordance with usual practice, provided that this does not apply to an Employee who has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to their health or safety, has advised the Employer of this concern and has not unreasonably failed to comply with a direction by the Employer to perform other available work that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

10.5 No Employee will be prejudiced as to the final settlement of the dispute by the continuance of work in accordance with this clause.

Agreement and dispute settlement facilitation

10.6 For the purposes of compliance with this Agreement (including compliance with this dispute procedure) where the chosen Employee representative is another Employee of the Employer, they must be given reasonable opportunity to enable them to represent Employees concerning matters pertaining to the employment relationship including but not limited to:

- (a) investigating the circumstances of a dispute or an alleged breach of this agreement or the National Employment Standards;
- (b) endeavouring to resolve a dispute arising out of the operation of the Agreement or the National Employment Standards; or
- (c) participating in conciliation, arbitration or agreed alternative dispute resolution process.

10.7 Any release from normal duties is subject to the proviso that it does not unduly affect the operations of the Employer.

Discussion of dispute

10.8 The dispute must first be discussed by the aggrieved Employee(s) with their immediate supervisor.

10.9 If the matter is not settled, the Employee(s) can require that the matter be discussed with another representative of the Employer appointed for the purposes of this procedure.

Internal processes

10.10 There will be two alternative internal dispute resolution processes established by the Employer.

10.11 The first will deal with disputes arising out of this Agreement or the National Employment Standards.

These disputes will be dealt with by a Dispute Settlement Committee (DSC) consisting of two nominees of the Employer, and two nominees of the Employee (excluding family members or legal practitioners) one of whom may be an officer of the Union entitled to represent the interests of the Employee.

10.12 The DSC will be a committee of the Employer and will determine its own procedures to consider the dispute but will be required to report to the Employer within five working days of being established. This may be a final report or a report that mediation or conciliation processes have been agreed to be undertaken by the parties.

- 10.13 On receiving the report from the DSC, the Employer will indicate in writing to the DSC and the parties to the dispute whether the recommendations of the DSC have been accepted or not within ten working days of receiving the report.
- 10.14 The second internal dispute resolution process will only consider disputes relating to workload. For these disputes, the Employer will establish a panel whose task it will be to examine the workload issues in dispute and make recommendations to the Employer.
- 10.15 The Workload Dispute Panel (WDP) will consist of:
- (a) The Director, Human Resources, however so named at the Employer;
 - (b) A nominee of the Employer who is not, and cannot be seen to be, a party to the dispute;
 - (c) A peer of the Employee(s) who is not, and cannot be seen to be, a party to the dispute.
- 10.16 The provisions applying in sub-clauses 10.2 to 10.9 will apply to this process except that WDP replaces DSC wherever occurring.
- 10.17 In considering a dispute the WDP will consider the following work load allocation principles:
- (a) the need for flexibility, equity, consistency, and balance across an organisational unit;
 - (b) information provided to all Employees in the organisational unit on the operation of the organisational unit;
 - (c) no Employee will be required to make up time, take on additional duties or alter the duties that would normally be undertaken while on approved leave;
 - (d) no Employee will be required to work more than 5 consecutive days without having access to 2 consecutive days absence from the workplace unless the Employee requests, and the Employer agrees, to an alternative arrangement that better suits the Employee's work/life balance;
 - (e) no Employee will be required to commence work within ten hours of the conclusion of duties undertaken on the previous day;
 - (f) annual leave and other leave plans of the Employee will be taken into consideration in the allocation of duties;
 - (g) the factors set out in clause 32.12.
- 10.18 If the dispute is not settled through an internal dispute resolution process, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Commission for conciliation and if the matter remains unresolved, arbitration.
- 10.19 If an Employee lodges a dispute characterised as a dispute arising from this Agreement or the National Employment Standards and at approximately the same time lodges a dispute about workload both disputes will be referred to a DSC.
- 10.20 The procedures for both internal processes will be conducted in a timely manner and be consistent with the following principles:
- (a) the rules of natural justice;
 - (b) appropriate mediation or conciliation of the dispute is available;
 - (c) any views on the composition of the DSC or WPD as appropriate will be considered by the Employer

- (d) the process is conducted as quickly, and with as little formality, as a proper consideration of the matter allows.

Disputes of a collective character

- 10.21 The parties covered by the Agreement acknowledge that disputes concerning two or more Employees may be dealt with more expeditiously by an early reference to the Commission.
- 10.22 No such dispute may be referred to the Commission by the parties directly unless there has been a genuine attempt to resolve the dispute at the workplace level prior to it being referred to the Commission for conciliation.

Conciliation

- 10.23 Where a dispute is referred for conciliation, a member of the Commission may arrange for whatever process the member considers may assist in resolving the dispute to occur.
- 10.24 Conciliation before the Commission will be regarded as completed when:
 - (a) the parties to the dispute have informed the Commission member they have reached agreement on the settlement of the dispute;
 - (b) or the member of the Commission conducting the conciliation is satisfied that there is no likelihood that within a reasonable period, further conciliation will result in a settlement; or
 - (c) the parties to the dispute have informed the Commission member that there is no likelihood of agreement on the settlement of the dispute.

Arbitration

- 10.25 If the dispute has not been settled when conciliation has been completed, either party to the dispute may request that the Commission proceeds to determine the dispute by arbitration.
- 10.26 Where a member of the Commission has exercised conciliation powers in relation to the dispute, the member will not exercise, or take part in the exercise of, arbitration powers in relation to the dispute if a party to the dispute objects to the member doing so.
- 10.27 Subject to sub-clause 10.28, the determination of the Commission is binding upon the parties to the dispute.
- 10.28 An appeal lies to a Full Bench of the Commission, with the leave of the Full Bench, against a determination of a single member of the Commission made pursuant to this clause.

Conduct of matters before the Commission

- 10.29 Subject to any agreement between the parties to the dispute in relation to a particular dispute and the provisions of this clause, in dealing with a dispute through conciliation or arbitration, the Commission may conduct the matter in accordance with Subdivision B of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act.

20.6 Where a decision is taken to defer salary progression, the Employee will be notified as soon as possible in writing and the reasons for the decision will be given. An Employee aggrieved by a decision may access the dispute resolution procedure in this Agreement.

21. Superannuation

- (b) The rights and obligations in these clauses supplement those in superannuation legislation.

21.2 Voluntary Employee contributions

- (a) Subject to the rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an Employee may, in writing, authorise their Employer to pay a specified amount from their post-taxation wages into the same superannuation fund as the Employer makes the superannuation contributions provided for in subclause 21.3.
- (b) An Employee may adjust the amount the Employee has authorised their Employer to pay from the wages of the Employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice to their Employer.
- (c) The Employer must pay the amount authorised by the Employee pursuant to this clause no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the amount is deducted from the Employee's wages.

21.3 Superannuation fund

- (a) Unless, to comply with superannuation legislation, the Employer is required to make the superannuation contributions to another superannuation fund that is chosen by the Employee, the Employer must make the superannuation contributions to one of the following superannuation funds or its successor:
 - (i) AustralianSuper;
 - (ii) Statewide Superannuation Trust;

- (iii) UniSuper Limited;
- (iv) VicSuper;
- (v) any superannuation fund to which the Employer was making superannuation contributions for the benefit of its Employees before 12 September 2008, provided the superannuation fund is an eligible choice fund and is a fund that offers a MySuper product or is an exempt public sector scheme; or 23.1 A higher duties allowance will be paid where an Employee is required by the Employer to undertake all or part of the duties of a higher classified position for:

- (a) a period longer than five consecutive working days; or
- (b) where the Employee works in the higher classified position on a regular and systematic basis.

23.2 The level of the allowance will be in proportion to the extent of the higher duties performed and will be calculated on the first increment of the higher position.

23.3 An Employee is entitled to payment of a higher duties allowance during any period of paid leave that occurs during the period of the higher duties assignment.

24. Accident make up pay

24.1 Where an absence from duty results from an injury which is the subject of a claim for compensation under the Workplace Injury, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013 (Vic) (WIRCA) as amended or replaced, or any predecessor legislation, the Employee is entitled to personal leave on full pay equivalent to any personal leave credits accrued at the time of application for personal leave.

24.2 Where liability is subsequently accepted in accordance with the WIRCA, the Employee will have any personal leave taken in respect of that injury re-credited.

24.3 Where an Employee is absent from duty as a result of sustaining an injury in respect of which the Employee is entitled to weekly payments under the WIRCA, the Employee will be entitled to accident make up pay equivalent to the Employee's normal weekly salary less the amount of weekly compensation. The maximum period of accident make up pay is a continuous period of 52 weeks, or an aggregate of 52 weeks, in respect of the compensable injury.

24.4 An Employee is not entitled to access personal leave with pay while receiving compensation payments for the same hours under the WIRCA.

24.5 Any period of time during which make-up pay is paid will count as service for all purposes as if the Employee had not sustained an injury or incapacity. Accordingly, the Employee continues to accrue annual leave, personal leave and long service leave while in receipt of accident make-up pay as they were accruing such leave immediately prior to commencing accident make-up pay.

25. Reimbursement of expenses

25.1 An Employee will be entitled to reasonable out-of-pocket expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the course of the Employee's authorised duties subject to the following conditions:

- (a) the activity and the expenses must be approved in advance by the Employer and, when required by the Employer, receipts validating the expenditure are to be supplied;
- (b) the amount of an expense will be considered reasonable where it does not exceed the relevant amount set by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) as adjusted from time to time; and
- (c) where the expense exceeds the relevant ATO amount the Employer is only required to reimburse at the ATO rate unless prior authorisation is provided to incur the greater expense.

25.2 Allowable expenses are:

E. HOURS OF WORK AND ALLOCATION OF DUTIES

26. Commencement

26.1 The provisions in this Part E will operate from 1 January 2019. Employees will remain subject to the arrangements that applied, or would have applied (in the case of new Employees), to their employment that existed immediately prior to the commencement of this Agreement until 1 January 2019.

27. Ordinary weekly hours of work

27.1 The ordinary hours of work are 38 hours per week and 8 hours per day within the span of hours in clause 28.

27.2 Duties will be allocated for periods of not less than four weeks (the roster period). An Employee's attendance pattern within the roster period may only be varied with the agreement of the teacher concerned. Allocation of duties will be made no less than two weeks prior to the commencement of each roster period.

27.3 The provisions of sub-clause 27.2 will not apply to the first four weeks of a teaching program in the first semester of the year. Where a new teaching program is to commence in second semester the provisions of sub-clause 27.2 will not apply to the first four weeks of the second semester for that program.

27.4 Where the Employer cancels classes, two weeks' notice of cancellation will be provided to the Employee. Where two weeks' notice is not given, hours allocated for classes cancelled by the Employer will be deemed to have been taught.

27.5 Subject to the provisions of the Agreement, an Employer may, from time to time, request an Employee to teach for more than 21 hours in a week and the Employee will not unreasonably refuse the Employer's request.

27.6 Any request under clause 27.5 above must not result in more than an average of 21 hours of teaching per week over 21 teaching weeks.

27.7 The Employer will not roster an Employee to work:

- (a) If it results in the Employee having less than 10 hours break between shifts;
- (b) In broken shifts; or
- (c) On more than 5 days in a week.

28. Span of ordinary hours

28.1 Subject to clause 28.3, ordinary hours of work may be worked between the hours of 6:00am to 10:00pm Monday to Friday and 9:00am to 5:00pm Saturday.

28.2 An Employee who has special circumstances such as caring for family member(s) may request that the Employer allow the Employee to commence or finish duties at times of the day that are suitable to the special circumstances. The Employer will not unreasonably refuse such a request. Any changes to the commencement or finishing times of an Employee will be recorded in writing and a copy provided to the Employee and held by the Employer.

28.3 If an Employee is allocated teaching duties during the following periods (Unsocial Hours):

- (a) 6:00am to 8:00am, Monday to Friday;

the Employer will credit the Employee with having worked 1.25 teaching delivery hour for every hour (or part thereof) worked by the Employee during the Unsociable Hours.

28.4 Prior to allocating teaching duties during Unsociable Hours, the Employer will seek volunteers. If the Employer has insufficient volunteers to work the required Unsociable Hours, the Employer may allocate Unsociable Hours to an Employee in their work plan, provided that the Employer distributes the teaching hours equitably across a program area and takes into account any family or carer responsibilities that an Employee may have.

29. Overtime

29.1 Overtime means the hours worked at the direction of the Employer, which are in addition to the Employee's ordinary hours of duty as contained in the annual work plan described in clause 32 (up to a maximum of 1748 ordinary hours of allocated duties) and clause 27.1, or outside the span of ordinary hours of work in clause 28.1.

29.2 An Employer may require an Employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and an Employee will not unreasonably refuse to work the overtime.

29.3 An Employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the Employee working hours that are unreasonable.

29.4 In determining whether the Employer's request is reasonable or an Employee's refusal is unreasonable the principles of the criteria outlined below will be considered:

- (a) Any risk to the Employee's health and safety from working the overtime;
- (b) The Employee's personal circumstances, including family responsibilities;
- (c) The needs of the Employer;
- (d) The notice (if any) given by the Employer for the Employee to work the overtime;
- (e) The notice (if any) given by the Employee of the intention to refuse to work overtime;
- (f) The usual patterns of work at the Employer;
- (g) The nature of the Employee's role and level of responsibility;
- (h) Any other relevant matter.

29.5 Employees will be paid at the following rates in the following circumstances:

Sunday	200% for all hours
Work performed on a public holiday or substitute day	250% for all hours

30. Meal Breaks

30.1 An Employee will not be required to work for more than five hours without being allowed a meal break of at least 30 minutes up to a maximum of one hour. The lunch break will be taken between 11:30am and 2:30pm and the evening meal break will be taken between 5:00pm and 7:00pm.

30.2 An Employee working overtime will be allowed a meal break of 20 minutes without deduction of pay after each four consecutive hours of overtime worked.

31. Attendance

31.1 Subject to clause 31.2 and clause 31.3, Employees classified as Teachers are required to attend their work location for up to 30 hours per week for up to 42 weeks per year. Agreement between the Employer and the Employee is required for attendance beyond these limits. The Employer may only seek such agreement after an Employee has been employed and then only after providing reasonable time for the Employee to gain advice and make an informed decision.

31.2 For up to 5 days a year, an Employer may request that an Employee attend their work location when an Employee was not otherwise required to attend for the following purposes:

- (a) Attending professional development provided by the Employer to Employees; or
- (b) In order to assist an Employer with compliance duties in the event that a regulator requires an audit to be conducted urgently, provided that the Employer provides at least 48 hours' notice.

31.3 An Employee may only refuse an Employer's request made under clause 31.2 if their refusal is reasonable.

31.4 Where an Employee is required to attend their work location as contemplated under clause 31.2, the Employee's attendance required under clause 31.1 is reduced by an equivalent number of days.

31.5 Employees classified as Education Managers or Senior Educators who do not have a teaching load are required to attend the workplace up to 38 hours per week and up to 52 weeks per year (other than those Employees who were classified as "Senior Educators" in or prior to 2002). 32. Allocation of duties and associated hours

32.1 Within a calendar year, Employees are accountable for 1748 hours of teaching and other duties.

32.2 Employees should have the opportunity to perform all of their duties within a reasonable timeframe and have fair and reasonable conditions and students should have ready access to their teachers. In this context, the work allocated to an Employee should, as far as practicable, provide for an equitable distribution of work across all Employees.

32.3 Duties and associated hours will be allocated in an annual work plan which is:

- (a) Determined by consultation and agreement in writing between the Employer and the Employee;

32.8 In agreeing to the work plan, the Employer and Employee must consider the following factors as they apply to each type of work outlined in clauses 32.5

33.2 The allocation of excess teaching duties is determined following consultation with, and agreement of, the Employee concerned provided that an Employee will not unreasonably refuse the Employer's request to perform excess teaching duties. 36. Personal/carer's leave

36.1 The provisions of this clause apply to full time and part time employees. Refer to sub-clauses 36.6 to 36.8 for the entitlements of casual Employees.

Amount, use and accumulation of personal/carer's leave

36.2 A full-time Employee is entitled to 15 days' (114 hours) paid personal/carer's leave per year of service. This entitlement accrues progressively and accumulates from year to year.

36.12 The direction by the Employer under sub-clause 36.11 of this clause must not be for a period of more than 10 working days unless the Employee unreasonably refuses to attend a medical examination. When this occurs the Employer may direct the Employee to absent themselves from duty on personal leave until the Employee attends the medical examination.

36.13 If the medical report discloses that the Employee is unfit for duty, the Employee will be granted such further personal leave as the medical report indicates is necessary.

36.14 If the medical report discloses that the Employee is fit for duty, or the Employer is otherwise satisfied that the Employee is fit to resume duty, the personal leave debited as a result of a direction under this clause will be restored and the Employee repaid any salary or wages lost as a result of the direction.

38.4 Only one parent can receive Primary Caregiver paid parental leave entitlements in respect of the birth or adoption of their Child. An Employee cannot receive Primary Caregiver paid parental leave entitlements:

- (a) if the Employee's Spouse is, or will be, the Primary Caregiver at the time of the birth or adoption of their Child.
- (b) if the Employee's Spouse has received, or will receive, paid maternity leave, Primary Caregiver entitlements, or a similar entitlement, from the Spouse's Employer; or
- (c) if the Employee has received, or will receive, Secondary Caregiver parental leave entitlements in relation to their Child.

38.5 Only one parent can receive Secondary Caregiver paid parental leave entitlements in respect of the birth or adoption of their Child.

38.6 An Employee, other than a Casual Employee, will be entitled to up to 52 weeks' unpaid parental leave subject to complying with the notice and evidence requirements set out in the NES regardless of their period of service.

Calculation of pay for the purposes of parental leave

38.7 The calculation of weekly pay for paid parental leave purposes will be based on the average number of ordinary hours worked by the Employee over the preceding three years. The calculation will exclude periods on unpaid parental leave.

38.8 The average number of weekly hours worked by the Employee, determined in accordance with sub-clause 38.7, will then be applied to the annual salary applicable to the Employee's classification and salary point at the time of taking parental leave to determine the actual rate of pay whilst on paid parental leave.

38.9 Despite sub-clause 38.7, an Employee who reduces their time fraction to better cope during pregnancy will not have their subsequent paid parental leave reduced by the effect of that reduction.

Half pay

38.10 The Employee may elect to take any paid parental leave entitlement at half of the pay calculated by the application of this clause for a period equal to twice the period to which the Employee would otherwise be entitled

Commonwealth paid parental leave

38.11 Paid parental leave entitlements outlined in this clause are in addition to any payments which may be available under the Commonwealth Paid Parental Leave Scheme.

Returning to work at a reduced time fraction

38.12 An Employee may request to return to work at a reduced time fraction until the Child reaches school age in order to assist the Employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities. After the Child reaches school age the Employee will resume their substantive time fraction unless the Employee and Employer agree otherwise.

38.13 Where an Employee wishes to make a request under sub-clause 38.12 such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than ten weeks prior to the date upon which the Employee is due to return to work from parental leave.

Consultation and communication during parental leave

38.14 Where an Employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace the Employer will take reasonable steps to ensure that the Employee is included in the processes described in clause 9.

38.15 It is the Employee's responsibility to notify the Employer of any change of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with sub-clause 38.14.

38.16 The Employee will take reasonable steps to participate in discussions with the Employer and to respond to the Employer's written documentation about the significant change as indicated in clause 9.

Extended family leave

38.17 An Employee who is the Primary Caregiver and has exhausted all parental leave entitlements may apply for unpaid extended family leave as a continuous extension to the parental leave taken in accordance with this clause.

38.18 The Employee under this subclause must make an application for extended family leave each year.

38.19 The Employee is not entitled to paid parental leave whilst on extended family leave.

38.20 Upon return to work the Employer may reallocate the Employee to other duties.

Replacement Employees

38.21 Before an Employer engages a person to replace an Employee on parental leave the Employer must inform the person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the Employee who is being replaced.

39. Long service leave

Ongoing and fixed-term Employees

39.1A full-time Employee accrues long service leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks for each completed year of Continuous Service with the Employer and will be entitled to access the long service leave entitlement, on a pro rata basis, after 7 completed years of Continuous Service with the Employer.

39.2An Employee with 7 or more completed years of Continuous Service is, on termination of their employment, entitled to payment for the balance of their accrued long service leave as at the date of termination.

39.3Where an Employee with 4 or more completed years of Continuous Service dies or whose service ceases on account of:

- (a) retirement; or
- (b) ill-health; or
- (c) redundancy;

the Employer will pay to the Employee, or the Employee's estate or representative, a sum equal to 1.3 weeks leave in respect of each completed year of Continuous Service calculated to the day of death or day or cessation.

39.4 An Employee granted long service leave will be paid:

- (a) where the Employee's ordinary hours of work have been constant, at the Employee's Base Rate of Pay; or
- (b) where the Employee's ordinary hours of work have varied, at the Base Rate of Pay for the Employee's average time fraction calculated over the total period of service; or
- (c) where the Employee has been in receipt of a payment at a higher classification or higher level for a period of 3 or more months at the time the long service leave is to commence and payment at the higher classification or higher level would have continued but for the Employee taking long service leave, at that classification or remuneration level.

39.5 An Employee may request and the Employer may agree for long service leave to be taken at half pay for double the period.

39.6 Where a public holiday occurs during a period of long service leave the day will be taken as a public holiday and will not be deducted from the long service leave entitlement of the Employee.

39.7 Long service leave is to be taken at a mutually agreeable time having regard to the operational requirements of the Employer provided that a minimum of 6 months' notice of taking leave must be provided unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Employee. Subject to the required notice being provided, leave will not be unreasonably refused.

39.8 Where an Employee has accrued in excess of 20 weeks long service leave the Employer may initiate the following steps to reduce the Employee's long service leave balance to an acceptable level:

- (a) The Employer and Employee, through discussion, may agree that the Employee will take leave which would reduce the balance to an agreed level.
- (b) In the absence of an agreement, the Employer may direct the Employee to take leave at a particular time that would reduce the long service leave credit to no less than 13 weeks at the time the leave period has concluded. The Employer must give the Employee at least 6 months' written notice of the direction to take leave.

39.9 An Employee must not work for hire or reward whilst they are taking long service leave.

39.10 Subject to the Employee making the claim referred to below, an Employee's prior Continuous Service at any Victorian TAFE Institute, Victorian University or Victorian public sector entity that recognises TAFE service (or any other previous employer as may be agreed between the Employee and the Employer at the time of the Employee's appointment) will count towards their Continuous Service for the purpose of determining their entitlement to long service leave under this clause, except for:

- (a) any period of service for which payment in lieu of long service leave has been made by a previous employer or for which an Employee has an entitlement for payment in lieu by a previous employer; and
- (b) any period of service that preceded a break of more than 12 months in the Employee's Continuous Employment.

39.11 An Employee must make any claim for recognition of prior service within six months of the date of appointment. The Employer must, as soon as possible after the date of the Employee's appointment, but no later than 12 months from that date, notify the Employee in writing as to the amount of prior service recognised towards the Employee's Continuous Service for long service leave purposes.

39.12 For the avoidance of doubt, any service recognised prior to the commencement of this clause is not disturbed by this clause.

Casual Employees

39.13 Casual Employees will accrue long service leave in accordance with the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic) (or its successor).

39.14 Notwithstanding subclause 39.13, any service which a Casual Employee performed while the 2009 Agreement applied to their employment (which excluded casual employees (within the meaning of that agreement) from long service leave) will not count towards their qualification for long service leave or the amount of leave to which they are entitled.

40. Emergency response leave

40.1 An Employee may be granted up to 38 hours paid leave in circumstances where an Employee is requested by an Emergency Service of which they are a member to attend an emergency that is causing or threatens to cause damage or injury to life, property or stock. The Employer may approve further leave with or without pay where the need is of such a magnitude as to warrant special consideration.

40.2 This provision applies to casual Employees who would have continued to be engaged but for the emergency response. For this class of Employee, where no loss of wages would have occurred, the entitlement of the Employee will be that of a right to return to their former position.

41. Court Attendance leave

41.1 An Employee required to appear and serve as a juror in any court will be granted leave at the Base Rate of Pay for the period during which the attendance of the Employee at court is required.

41.2 An employee under a subpoena or order, shall be entitled to attend the relevant jurisdiction as part of their official duties, without loss of pay.

41.3 To obtain approval for leave under this clause, a leave application must be supported by a copy of the notification that the Employee has attended the court.

41.4 Any payment made to the Employee for serving as a juror during their ordinary hours of work must be repaid to the Employer, less an amount for reasonable expenses actually incurred.

42. Family violence leave

Introduction

- 42.1 Employers respondent to this Agreement recognise that Employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that may affect their attendance or performance at work. Therefore the Employers are committed to providing support to Employees who experience family violence.
- 42.2 Leave for family violence purposes is available to Employees who are experiencing family violence, and also to allow them to be absent from the workplace to attend counselling appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to, and as a consequence of, family violence.
- 42.3 Family violence includes physical, sexual, financial, verbal or emotional abuse by a family member as defined by the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic).
- 42.4 Family violence leave is available to all Employees with the exception of casual Employees. Casual Employees are entitled to leave without pay for family violence purposes.

General Measures

- 42.5 Evidence of family violence may be required and can be in the form of a document issued by the Police Service, a Court, a registered health practitioner, a Family Violence Support Service, district nurse, maternal and health care nurse or lawyer. A signed statutory declaration can also be accepted as evidence.
- 42.6 All personal information concerning family violence will be kept confidential consistent with the relevant Employer's policies and appropriate legislation. No information will be kept on the Employee's personnel file without the express written permission of the Employee.
- 42.7 No adverse action will be taken against an Employee if the Employee's attendance or performance at work suffers as a result of experiencing family violence.
- 42.8 Employers will identify contacts within each Institute who will be trained in family violence and associated privacy issues. Employers will advertise the names of family violence contacts within the Institute.
- 42.9 An Employee experiencing family violence may raise the issue with the immediate supervisor, a family violence contact, Union delegate or Human Resources contact. The immediate supervisor may seek advice from Human Resources if the Employee chooses not to see Human Resources or family violence contact.
- 42.10 Where requested by an Employee, the Human Resources contact will liaise with the Employee's manager on the Employee's behalf, and will make a recommendation on the most appropriate form of support to provide in accordance with clauses 42.14 to 42.17 below inclusive.
- 42.11 Employers will develop guidelines to supplement these family violence provisions and which detail the appropriate action to be taken in the event that an Employee reports family violence.
- 42.12 An Employee experiencing family violence will have access to 20 days per year of paid special leave following an event of family violence and for related purposes such as medical appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to family violence. This leave is not cumulative but if leave is exhausted consideration will be given to providing additional leave. This leave will be in addition to existing leave entitlements and may be taken as consecutive or single days or as a fraction of a day and can be taken without prior approval.

42.13 An Employee who supports a person experiencing family violence may utilise their personal/carer's leave entitlement to accompany the person to court, to hospital or to care for children. The Employer may require evidence consistent with clause 42.5 from an Employee seeking to utilise the personal/carer's leave entitlement.

Individual Support

42.14 In order to provide support to an Employee experiencing family violence and to provide a safe work environment to all Employees, the Employer will approve any reasonable request from an Employee experiencing family violence for:

- (a) temporary or ongoing changes to the span of hours or pattern of hours and or shift patterns;
- (b) temporary or ongoing job redesign or changes to duties;
- (c) temporary or ongoing relocation to suitable employment;
- (d) a change to the telephone number or email address to avoid harassing contact;
- (e) any other appropriate measure including those available under existing provisions for family friendly and flexible work arrangements.

42.15 Any changes to an Employee's role should be reviewed at agreed periods. When an Employee is no longer experiencing family violence, the terms and conditions of employment may revert back to the terms and conditions applicable to the Employee's substantive position.

42.16 An Employee experiencing family violence will be offered access to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and/or other available local support resources. The EAP will include professionals trained specifically in family violence.

42.17 An Employee who discloses that they are experiencing family violence will be given information regarding current support services.

43. Defence reserve service leave

43.1 An Employee required to complete Defence Reserve Service may be granted leave for up to 4 weeks or 28 calendar days in a year commencing on 1 January.

43.2 On recruitment or for initial training as a member of the Defence Reserve an Employee may be granted leave for up to 2 weeks or 14 calendar days. This leave is restricted to the Employee's first year of Defence Reserve Service.

43.3 With the exception of the additional two weeks on recruitment or for initial training as described in sub-clause 43.2, leave can be accumulated and taken over two years to enable the employee to undertake training as a member of the ADF Reserves.

43.4 An Employee may apply for additional Defence Reserve Service leave which the Employer may refuse or grant as leave subject to all the circumstances.

43.5 The Employee will consult with the Employer regarding the proposed timing of the leave and will give the Employer as much notice as possible of when Defence Reserve Service for which leave is required will take place. Failure to provide reasonable notice will be grounds for the leave to be refused.

43.6 Where the base salary, excluding allowances, received by the Employee from the Australian Defence Force or Defence Reserve Service during the Employee's ordinary hours of duty is below the Employee's salary under this Agreement, the Employer will, unless exceptional circumstances arise, pay to the Employee make up pay to the level of the Employee's salary under this Agreement for the period of the Defence Reserve Service leave.

44. Cultural and Ceremonial leave

NAIDOC Week Leave

44.1 An Employee of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent is entitled to one day of paid leave per year to participate in National Aboriginal and Islander Day Observance Committee (NAIDOC) week activities and events.

44.2 NAIDOC week leave will not accrue from year to year and will not be paid out on termination of the employment of the Employee.

Leave to attend Aboriginal community meetings

44.3 The Employer may approve attendance during working hours by an Employee of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent at any Aboriginal community meetings, except the Annual General Meetings of Aboriginal community organisations at which the election of office bearers will occur.

Leave to attend Annual General Meetings of Aboriginal community organisations

44.4 The Employer may grant an Employee of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent accrued annual or other leave to attend Annual General Meetings of Aboriginal community organisations at which the election of office bearers will occur.

Ceremonial leave

44.5 Ceremonial leave may be granted to an Employee of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent for ceremonial purposes:

- (a) connected with the death of a member of the immediate family or extended family (provided that no Employee shall have an existing entitlement reduced as a result of this clause); or
- (b) for other ceremonial obligations under Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander lore.

44.6 Where ceremonial leave is taken for the purposes outlined in clause 44.5(a), up to three days in each year of employment will be with pay. Paid ceremonial leave will not accrue from year to year and will not be paid out on termination of the employment of the Employee.

44.7 Ceremonial leave granted under this clause 44 is in addition to compassionate leave granted under clause 37.

45. Study leave

45.1 An Employee may be granted study leave or industry release in accordance with Institute policy to obtain formal qualifications and skills that are directly related to progression through the qualification-based career path. Such leave may be granted on a paid or unpaid basis.

45.2 Applications for such leave will not be unreasonably refused.

46. Sabbatical leave

46.1 On application, the Employer may grant an Employee sabbatical leave of one year every 5 years on 80% salary subject to the Employee agreeing to have their annual salary reduced by 20% for the relevant work period preceding the leave and the Employee entering an agreement with the Employer covering the terms and conditions of the sabbatical leave.

46.2 Unless otherwise agreed the leave will be taken immediately following the completion of the relevant work period during which the salary was reduced.

46.3 Sabbatical Leave will count as service for all purposes.

47. Public holidays

47.1 An Employee, other than a Casual Employee, is entitled to be absent on a Public Holiday without loss of pay. A Casual Employee is entitled to be absent on a Public Holiday without pay.

47.2 The following are Public Holidays:

(a) Each of the following days:

(i) New Year's Day (1 January);

(ii) Australia Day (26 January);

(iii) Labour Day (Victoria);

(iv) Good Friday;

(v) Easter Saturday;

(vi) Easter Monday;

(vii) ANZAC Day (25 April);

(viii) Queen's Birthday;

(ix) Melbourne Cup Day;

(x) Christmas Day (25 December);

(xi) Boxing Day (26 December); and

(b) any other day, or part-day, declared or prescribed by or under a law of Victoria to be observed generally within Victoria, or a region of Victoria, as a public holiday.

47.3 If, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of Victoria, a day or part-day is substituted for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a Public Holiday because of sub-clause 47.2(b), then the substituted day or part-day is instead the Public Holiday.

47.4 Subject to agreement between the Employer and a majority of affected Employees, a Public Holiday other than a day prescribed in sub-clause 47.2 or 47.3 above may be observed. If this occurs, the day agreed becomes the Public Holiday and the actual Public Holiday becomes an ordinary working day. The Employer will advise the Union in writing within seven days of any such agreement.

47.5 An Employer may request an Employee to work on a Public Holiday, if the request is reasonable.

47.6 If an Employer requests an Employee to work on a Public Holiday, the Employee may refuse the request if:

- (a) the request is not reasonable; or
- (b) the refusal is reasonable.

47.7 In determining whether a request, or a refusal of a request, to work on a Public Holiday is reasonable, the following must be taken into account:

- (a) the nature of the Employer's workplace or enterprise (including its operational requirements), and the nature of the work performed by the Employee;
- (b) the Employee's personal circumstances, including family responsibilities;
- (c) whether the Employee could reasonably expect that the Employer might request work on the Public Holiday;
- (d) whether the Employee is entitled to receive overtime payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level of remuneration that reflects an expectation of, work on the Public Holiday;
- (e) the type of employment of the Employee (for example, whether full-time, part-time, or casual);
- (f) the amount of notice in advance of the Public Holiday given by the Employer when making the request;
- (g) in relation to the refusal of a request--the amount of notice in advance of the Public Holiday given by the Employee when refusing the request;
- (h) any other relevant matter.

G. Redundancy Process and Entitlements

48. Redundancy process and entitlements

48.1 This clause does not apply to:

- (a) casual Employees; and
- (b) Employees engaged on a fixed-term contract whose employment ends because of the expiry of the fixed-term.

48.2 The Employer will adopt the following process to identify Employees in excess of Employer requirements and therefore to be considered for selection.

48.3 Subject to satisfying the requirements of clauses 8 and/or 9 the Employer will convene meetings of potentially affected Employees to seek volunteers. The Employer may only reject an expression of interest from any volunteer where selection of that Employee creates a consequential vacancy or a deficit in the skills required for the Employer's continuing function.

48.4 Where insufficient volunteers or too many volunteers are forthcoming, the Employer will determine those Employees in excess of its requirements taking into account the following criteria:

- (a) the required qualifications, skills and abilities between Employees as required for the continuing operation of the program;
- (b) any special qualifications or aptitude for the position/s continuing to be required to be performed by the Employer; and
- (c) any reasons, including compassionate grounds, advanced by an Employee as to why they should not be considered for redeployment.

48.5 Provided that where a decision is to be made about Employees who are otherwise considered equal in relation to these criteria, the Employee to be identified as excess to Employer requirements will be that person whose selection causes the least disruption to the continuing operation of the Employer.

48.6 Subject to this clause, the parties agree that Employer policies in relation to redeployment and termination of employment are to apply for the life of this Agreement. Such policies may only be varied following consultation and agreement with the Union in accordance with clause 8. It is acknowledged that such policies are not to be taken to abrogate any rights an Employee may have in equity or in law.

Redundancy pay

48.7 An Employee is entitled to redundancy pay in accordance with the FW Act, except to the extent that the table below provides for a greater benefit. This does not prevent an Employer from applying a more generous policy with respect to redundancy pay.

Period of Continuous Service	Redundancy pay
At least 1 year but less than 2 years	4 weeks
At least 2 years but less than 3 years	6 weeks
At least 3 years but less than 4 years	7 weeks

At least 5 years but less than 6 years	10 weeks
At least 6 years but less than 7 years	12 weeks
At least 7 years but less than 8 years	14 weeks
At least 8 years but less than 9 years	16 weeks
At least 9 years but less than 10 years	18 weeks
At least 10 years	20 weeks

H. Freedom of Association

49. Trade union training leave

49.1 Employees shall be entitled to a maximum of 5 days paid leave per calendar year or an aggregate of 10 days paid leave over 2 calendar years to attend an activity or course of study which contributes to a better understanding of dispute resolution provisions of this Agreement.

49.2 Applications for such Leave must be approved prior to the taking of Leave. Such applications will not be unreasonably refused providing:

- (a) The application is accompanied by a letter from the authority conducting the activity or course stating the Employee wishes to attend and providing notice as to date, time, location, duration and content or purpose of the activity or course; and
- (b) The release of the Employee does not cause undue inconvenience to the Employer.

49.3 Leave granted under this clause:

- (a) will be on full pay which shall include payments which are deemed to be part of pay for all purposes but shall not include payments for work outside ordinary hours or excess hours payments;
- (b) May include any necessary traveling time in normal working hours immediately before or after the activity or course; and
- (c) will count as service for all purposes.

49.4 An Employee granted leave under this clause will not be permitted to claim reimbursement of personal expenses such as fares, accommodation or meal costs in attending the activity or course.

50. Induction

50.1 At the point of engagement or during induction, Union representatives will have the opportunity to provide a document to encourage new Employees to join a Union that has the right to represent them and their industrial interests.

51. Leave To Attend Trade Union Council Meetings

51.1 Australian Education Union state councillors will be given up to 8 days leave in any one calendar year to attend union council meetings or alternative. Five of these days are to be deducted from the Employee's trade union training leave taken under clause 49.

52. Electronic Communications

52.1 Employees are allowed reasonable access to electronic communication to facilitate communication between Employees and their representatives, which may include a Union, on matters pertaining to the employer/employee relationship.

52.2 The Employer will not interfere with communications between an Employee and a Union representative and will consider such communications as confidential between the Employee and the Union.

52.3 Union representatives using the Employer's electronic communication systems for Union related matters will exercise their rights reasonably, in accordance with law and pursuant to the Employer's policy. Where the Employer proposes to introduce or vary an electronic communications policy related to union utilisation, there shall be consultation between the Employer and the Union.

53. AEU Union Representatives Time Allowance

53.1 Australian Education Union representatives will be granted time allowances to be deducted from face to face teaching; online or by other means; and/or supervision of learning allocated in accordance with clauses 32.5(a)(i) and 32.10(a)(i). The total of time allowance allocated will be 145 hours for first 50 members plus one hour for each additional member. Union membership numbers will be confirmed annually in December of each year.

I. OTHER MATTERS

54. Individual Flexibility Term

54.1 An Employer and Employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of this Agreement if:

- (a) the agreement deals with 1 or more of the following matters:
 - (i) part-time employment;
 - (ii) qualification-based career path;
 - (iii) annual leave loading;
 - (iv) hours of work;
 - (v) public holidays;
 - (vi) annual leave;
 - (vii) long service leave;
 - (viii) parental leave; and
- (b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to 1 or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a); and
- (c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee.

54.2 The Employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

- (a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the FW Act; and
- (b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the FW Act; and
- (c) result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

54.3 The Employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

- (a) is in writing;
- (b) includes the name of the Employer and employee;
- (c) is signed by the Employer and Employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee;
- (d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of this Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement;
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms;
 - (iii) how the Employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of their employment as a result of the arrangement; and

- (f) The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

 - (ii) if the Employer and Employee agree in writing at any time.

55. Overall total remuneration package for Overseas-based Employees

55.1 Nothing contained elsewhere in the Agreement precludes an Employer and an Employee who is to work overseas from entering into a written agreement for the payment of an overall total remuneration package for the Employee.

55.2 The overall total remuneration package will comprise the Agreement salary rate, Employer superannuation contributions and an additional component in lieu of specified Agreement entitlements.

55.3 In such cases, the written agreement between the Employer and the Employee will specify:

- (a) the period for which the agreement will operate;
- (b) the overall total or flat salary and Employer superannuation contributions to apply; and
- (c) the relevant Agreement clauses that do not apply.

Provided no agreement will be made that permits the leave entitlements of an Employee to be exchanged for monetary remuneration.

55.4 An overall remuneration package will not disadvantage an Employee when comparing their total remuneration inclusive of Employer superannuation contributions with the salary, Employer superannuation contributions and Agreement clause entitlements they would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to this Agreement.

55.5 Prior to entering a written agreement for an overall total remuneration package, a reasonable period of time will be provided for the Employer and Employee to consider the proposal and seek advice.

56. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by the parties on separate counterparts. Each counterpart constitutes the agreement of each party who has executed that counterpart.

4. Schedule 4 — Approved Qualifications

SCOPE AND PURPOSE

This Schedule establishes the approved teacher qualification requirements for —

- entitlement for a TAFE teacher to commence employment
- identification of the appropriate level on the incremental salary scale in the Teacher classifications
- for progression along that salary scale and
- appointment to the Education Manager classification.

These qualification requirements are found at clause 20.1.

AQF Level 5 teaching qualification

For a Level 5 teaching qualification to be approved for the purposes of this agreement it must contain —

- studies in adult learning methodology
- studies in teaching in a Vocational Education environment
- Studies in Applied Research (linked to the Boyer framework of scholarship)
- 200 hours of supervised practicum

AQF Level 6 or above teaching qualification

For a Level 6 or above teaching qualification to be approved for the purposes of this agreement it must contain —

- studies in adult learning methodology
- studies in teaching in a Vocational Education environment

SUPERVISED TEACHING PRACTICE

To meet the approved teaching qualification standards, for both the AQF Level 5 and AQF Level 6 or above, 200 hours of supervised teaching practice is mandatory and can be made up of the following -

Direct Supervision

- 50 hours in which the teaching practice of the teacher candidate is observed and evaluated by a qualified teacher educator of the institution conferring the teaching qualification or, by other fully qualified teachers who agree to act as supervisor/s of the teacher candidate.
Where the institution conferring the qualification is not undertaking the direct supervision, such supervision by a suitably qualified and experienced TAFE teacher, must be authorised and accredited by the conferring institution;

- B. Teachers with non-approved teaching qualifications
